

BE A GOOD READER!!

Readers will jot the following in the margins as they read:

- ① What are you picturing in your mind?
--sketch the image
 - ② What you are wondering?
--Write out a question you have.
 - ③ What are you thinking?
--State an opinion about something from the text
 - ④ What are you feeling?
--Explain an emotional reaction you had as you read.
 - ⑤ What do you find interesting?
--Write what you found interesting from the reading.
 - ⑥ What can you connect to?
--Write a connection you can make from the reading based on:
 - Text to text (something you have read before)
 - Text to self (something you have experienced personally)
 - Text to world (something you have seen or heard about elsewhere)
- } CHOOSE ONE

As soon as a picture or thought comes to mind make a bubble and draw or write a statement inside the bubble. There will be six bubbles on a page you are told to "MARK UP". Make sure you write the number inside the bubble, so you know you have completed the step.
